NEW BUSINESS

Volunteer Appreciation Event

Garth Wheeler introduced a proposal to hold a volunteer appreciation event on Friday, April 22, 2022 at the Portside Grill. The proposal from Portside Grill is $4,200

Mayor Hartley commented that everyone wants volunteers honored, but how deep and broad should the guest list be. Should only volunteers & staff be included.

Discussion took place regarding the scope of who was being invited. The list includes Town Council, Town Staff, project volunteers, and various members of the area instrumental in aiding the town.

Garth Wheeler added the average volunteer saves the town approximately $28/hour

Councilmember Smith made a motion to approve holding a Volunteer Appreciation Event on April 22, 2022 at a cost of $4,602.00 to celebrate our volunteers.

Councilmember Austin seconded

Austin, Chowning, Goldsmith, Hanson, Smith, and Hartley voted yes Motion passed 6-0

Museum Painting Contract

Garth Wheeler commented the museum is in need of painting. With its historical significance and as an important amenity in the town, it is important to have the building cleaned, painted, and windows caulked. Partlett's Painting has provided a contract in the amount of $9375.00

Councilmember Austin inquired as to whether or not they are familiar with historical structures. Garth Wheeler responded Partlett's was familiar with historical properties and had completed projects in Williamsburg, as well as buildings in Urbanna.

Work would not begin until after the study by historical architect is completed and funds would come from the Historic Trust.

Councilmember Austin made a motion to go ahead and hire Partlett's to do the work on the museum for the total cost of $9375.00

Councilmember Goldsmith seconded
Austin, Chowning, Goldsmith, Smith, and Hartley voted yes

Motion passed 5-0

Taber Park Pool-proposed fees

Councilmember Goldsmith presented the most recent proposal for pool membership fees to be charged when the new Taber Park pool opens.

(Proposal attached)

- Funding needs to be in place not only for construction, but continuing maintenance
- Middlesex County has not yet said whether or not it will provide funding for project, but it should be accessible to Middlesex residents as it will be the only pool acceptable for competition in Middlesex.
- Friends of Urbanna has agreed to accept donations on behalf of town for pool due to their 501(c)(3)

Virginia Main Street Program

Covered during Planning Commission report

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Garth Wheeler announced the proposed changes to the Town Charter had passed the General Assembly and awaiting the Governor's signature.
